Guideline/Instruction for the Authors

TAWARIKH will provide a peer-reviewed forum for the publication of thought-leadership articles, briefings, discussion, applied research, case and comparative studies, expert comment and analysis on the key issues surrounding the history education and historical studies, and its various aspects. Analysis will be practical and rigorous in nature.

Prospective authors must adhere to the following guidelines: (1) article length is 10 pages minimum and 20 pages maximum, including bibliography and appendices; (2) abstract and its key words are included; (3) the article may be written by three persons maximum; and (4) attach a bio mentioning author's current profession, newest photograph, and postal and e-mail addresses.

The article should follow the outline:

Title (brief, clear, and interesting)

Name of author

Abstract

Introduction

Methods

Findings and Discussion

Sub title

Sub title

Sub title (adjusted as needed)

Conclusion (including the recommendation)

References (contains literature cited in the text)

Citation takes the following form: "... (Moriyama, 2010:17). Bibliography from books, journals, and unpublished sources should be written in the following form, respectively:
